Communication: Making Connections (9th Edition) William J. Seiler, Melissa L. Beall, Joseph P. Mazer
Emphasizes the connections between communication and our daily lives
Communication: Making Connections, a top-selling hybrid text, is unique in its integrated "Making Connections" theme and emphasis on technology. While introducing the basic principles of public speaking, interpersonal communication and group communication, the text stresses communication competence by constantly applying a solid theoretical foundation through everyday and relevant communication examples, thought-provoking questions, and boxed features.

MyCommunicationLab is an integral part of the Seiler program. Key learning applications include MediaShare, an eText, and a study plan.

A better teaching and learning experience
This program will provide a better teaching and learning experience—for you and your students. Here's how:

- Personalize Learning– MyCommunicationLab is online learning. MyCommunicationLab engages students through personalized learning and helps instructors from course preparation to delivery and assessment
- Improve Critical Thinking– Chapter summaries are organized by learning objectives to help students focus on what they need to learn in each chapter.
- Engage Students–New examples and an increased emphasis on technology are relevant to today's students in a variety of ways.
- Support Instructors– A full set of supplements, including MyCommunicationLab, provides instructors with all the resources and support they need.

Kim Heflin:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Communication: Making Connections (9th Edition) can make you feel more interested to read.
