Paws for Thought Maureen Melvin
This is a classic re-issue of poems written by Abigail, a Cavalier King Charles spaniel aged six. She has composed verse since she was a tiny puppy and feels that this small collection of her work might be of interest to other dogs and their owners. This selection of Abigail's poems is perceptive and enchanting, revealing the variety and richness of a dog's life: the discomfort of a visit to the vet; first love for a fickle Labrador; and her favourite reading matter and what she would like to become when she grows up.
