Long and Short Australian Stories

Margaret Lynette Sharp

Long and Short Australian Stories Margaret Lynette Sharp
This is a collection of Short Stories set in Australia. 'Long and Short Australian Stories' is characterized by easy to read, flowing language that invites page turning.Many themes are addressed, such as jealousy, ambition, and sincerity. Locations such as beaches and homes, in city and country, are drawn upon to provide the backdrop for the action. This is a book for adults of all ages, and is particularly suited to those who value good English.
In common with all Margaret Lynette Sharp's books, this is edited by her husband Ronald Sharp B.E.M., the creator of the Sydney Opera House Concert Hall's Grand Organ.
