The Grace Course Leader's Guide Steve Goss, Rich Miller, Jude Graham
Many Christians have a good understanding that salvation is by grace through faith, and that there is nothing they can do to earn their salvation.

However, many have fallen into the trap that once saved, they must try to maintain God's acceptance by working hard and doing the right things. They focus so much on how well they are behaving as children of God that they miss experiencing life in the reality of God's grace. In the end they become stressed out, burned out, or fed up with trying to act like they think Christians should act but never quite managing it. Tragically they usually come to believe that they will never be "good enough."
