The law, our school-master. A sermon, preached at Litchfield June 8, 1756. Before the Association of Litchfield County Joseph Bellamy
"THE chief Design of the present Discourse is to give the true Sense of this Text; which will go far towards leading us into the Nature of the Jewish Religion, and of the Christian; and help to remove several dangerous Mistakes, which Mankind have been apt to run into.Now, in Order to understand any Text of Scripture, we are to consider the various Circumstances of the Discourse; such as, the Character of the Persons spoken to, the Manner how the Text is introduced, and for what Purpose: That, we, seeing the Occasion of what is written, and the Scope and Design of the inspired Writer, may the more readily and certainly discern the true Sense of the Passage. Here, therefore let us enquire intothe Character of the Persons St. Paul had to deal withthe Occasion and Design of these Words, and how they were introduced in the Thread of his Argumentand the Grounds he saw in the Nature of the Mosais Dispensation for this Observation, That the Law was School-Master to bring us to Christ."
This is an edition of a classical book first published in the eighteenth century.
