Enjoy this holiday classic that has enthralled generations for nearly two centuries. Both children and adults will appreciate its magic. Breathless, and utterly charming, the quick-time poem captures in graceful rhyme the wonderful anticipation of Christmas eve. This edition is superbly and precisely illustrated in color and formatted for Kindle devices and apps; this edition even includes a cute image of the famous mouse (“not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.”)

Boston Hill Press has restored and edited color illustrations* originally prepared by the legendary artist Jessie Willcox Smith in 1912. They have been optimized for this e-book. May a new generation find them as pleasing as did their forebears.

This is non-smoking edition, with text and images smoothly reflecting our more health -conscious era. May it bring joy to you and yours this and every season of Christmas.

On select Kindle devices and apps, the illustrations may be enlarged: Tap twice on the image; OR touch image for a few seconds, release, and then select the “zoom” icon that appears.

*Color feature require e-reader device capable of color display. Grayscale devices may display in grayscale.
