Embracing Dyslexia: The Chronicles of a Personal Realisation Sandy Hobley
There in front of her was a situation she had wrestled with daily since her childhood. Sandy was not about to let this young girl suffer the same way she had. For the first 50 years of her life, Sandy had been dealing with what she thought was a disability. Then through an unexpected encounter, she turned her life upside down. By deliberately facing her demons and “having a go” in true Aussie style, she became an advocate for all who suffer learning difficulties. Between the covers of this book is an encouraging and empowering story of a woman who realised her own giftedness; a woman who rose above her own personal handicaps, to lift others from their despair to a place of self belief and self confidence.
