STALKING LOVE, AN INTERNATIONAL ROMANTIC THRILLER (the contemporary romance series Book 1) Johnny Ray
Another spellbinding romantic thriller from one of Amazon's bestselling suspense authors who has the ability to mix a contemporary romance with the vicious crimes of a serial killer.

This intense murder mystery is a work of fiction packed with action and adventure and set inside the world of real estate. It involves a red hot contemporary romance between a realtor and a mortgage broker who is fifteen years younger than she is. While they have issues to be worked through in their budding romance they must first survive the serial killer who is still on the loose and closing in on them.

Sometimes when you think your career has provided you with everything you would ever want, life has a way of opening your eyes to what little you actually have. While finding and accepting love can be the biggest challenge of a life time, revealing secrets can be dangerous. So, can it be possible to admit what is really important and toss away a life time of work to lock in on love?

STALKING LOVE is a romantic thriller set in St. Petersburg, Florida during the current real estate crisis. With a serial killer targeting people involved in the real estate business, and a potential love of a lifetime in the works, it takes all of the strength and courage of a woman thought to have it all, but lacking everything that really matters to grow and develop into who she is destined to become.

As Rachel Contino, a proficient, thirty-eight year old realtor, attempts to avoid the real estate meltdown caused by her main client, developer Jonathan Harrell who had died in an apparent suicide, new evidence surfaces that it wasn't a suicide but murder. This is soon followed up by the murder of Jonathan's partner. These murders inside a condo complex hosting her largest number of listings makes her sales all but disappear, forcing her into deeper financial problems. In addition to her financial situation, she is scared that the murderer may be targeting her next.

Meanwhile, Rachel, who has no time for a life outside of her profession, meets Carlos Martinis, a twenty-three year old mortgage broker, and yields to the teasing of her friends in attempting to make this stud her boy toy. When a hot romance develops between this unlikely hero and heroine, a serial killer closes in and forces her to reassess her goals in life. Now, can she learn the secrets to relying on love instead of her money?
