The Anniversary...not to be forgotten (Volume 3) Callie Norse
A story of young love...intermingled with mystery and paranormal happenings...sure to intrigue to the end. After falling in love at a tender young age, and giving birth, Maggie and Toby finally marry. They return to Freeport, Illinois on their honeymoon to revisit memories of years before when they were hiding out. They live in Maggie's dad's rental property until misfortune makes it necessary to move into the old Victorian, against her dad's best judgement. Maggie begins blanking out hours at a time from her memory. She struggles to remember the missing hours. A stranger appears to be stalking their young daughter. Toby sees things he keeps to himself. The couple was never made aware of all that transpired in the house when Maggie was living there as a child. Toby, eventually, confides in his dad and learns the history of the house. They take an anniversary trip to Virginia Beach, where the unthinkable happens...definitely The Anniversary...not to be forgotten.
