The Devil Is a Lie ReShonda Tate Billingsley
A woman discovers the downside of good luck—and the false promise of one little lottery ticket—in this stunning novel from #1 national bestselling author ReShonda Tate Billingsley.

When Nina Lawson wins $16 million in the Texas Lotto, the Houston real estate executive and her fiancé, sexy personal trainer Rick Henderson, ecstatically begin planning their future—from paying off their credit cards, to setting their wedding date, to a spontaneous, spare-no-expense island getaway.

But Nina didn't count on a second astounding twist of fate to befall her: her ex-husband, Todd Lawson, apparently isn't her ex anything due to a paperwork mix-up. Now Todd claims he's entitled to half her cash . . . and a string of Nina's long-lost relatives are turning up for handouts, too. "Living the dream" is fast becoming a nightmare, and before it's too late, Nina must take stock of her many blessings, not her bank account—or risk losing everything she values.
