An Introduction to Geography from a Christian World View RITCHIE IV ROBERT F
An Introduction to Geography from a Christian World View surveys geography from a regional and human perspective. This text inspires students to commit themselves to searching for opportunities to serve others using their talents and spiritual gifts. It will expose the reader to a plethora of perspectives to current events both contemporary and traditional. It is argued the culture we experience is ultimately a function of physical geography and we exist at a particular moment in time for the purpose of pursuing opportunities to serve ultimately with an eternal objective in mind.
