The Films of Mae West. Jon Tuska
Mae West was an American actress, playwright, screenwriter & sex symbol whose entertainment career spanned seven decades. Known for her bawdy double entendres, West made a name for herself in vaudeville & on the stage in New York before moving to Hollywood to become a comedienne, actress & writer in the motion picture industry. One of the more controversial movie stars of her day, West encountered many problems including censorship. When her cinematic career ended, she continued to perform on stage, in Las Vegas, in the United Kingdom, on radio and television, and recorded rock and roll albums. This book covers every aspect of Mae West's appearences in vaudeville, on the stage and screen, on radio, in night clubs - including her Las Vegas act. Hundreds of rare photographs are included in this first complete record of her career, along with stills from all her films.
