A Saucerful of Secrets Jane Yardley
A teenage girl comes to Ealing to meet her birth mother, a glamorous, bohemian writer, in this blackly funny novel with a stunning twist.

It is 1969: London swings, men land on the moon, and thirteen-year-old Kim Tanner appears on Imogen's doorstep to announce she is her long-lost daughter. Imogen has written a bestseller about the baby she was forced to give away, so there have been many contenders. But Kim is special, and Imogen is convinced. So Kim moves in and proceeds to bring order to chaos. Then along comes the pretty, appealing Sukie, also claiming to be Imogen's child.

Kim is determined to prove she is the real daughter, but when she starts digging she unearths a very murky story.
