Great Personalities of the Bible William Sanford Lasor
LaSor introduces over 30 Bible figures along with their backgrounds, their weaknesses and their strengths. Careful attention is given to historical facts revealed by archaeological research and a broad knowledge of ancient literature. Through identification with these men and women comes the revelation that God works in similar ways today in dealing with people. Each chapter ends with a personal application that promotes individual reflection. An extremely helpful volume for pastors, students, and Bible teachers.
