The Second Most Important Prayer: Surrendering to Jesus Christ Means True Freedom and Abundant Life Brad Inman
Paul said, "O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" (Romans 7:24). Christians are vulnerable to worldly enticements and values. For years after accepting Christ, Brad Inman was self-centered, virtually ignoring God. But when God began to get his attention, Inman prayed The Second Most Important Prayer. His life has never been the same. Inman's story is one with which Christians can identify. Whether you are striving to know God as a new believer, or struggling because you feel far from Him, The Second Most Important Prayer invites you to put on God's armor and "fight the good fight of the faith" (1 Timothy 6:12). Inman encourages believers to pursue renewed spiritual life by finding strength and comfort through their relationship with Jesus Christ. This book will take you through the awe-inspiring journey of salvation: God redeemed us through Christ, set us apart for His use, and will allow us to share in Christ's glory. It's vital that Christians obediently follow Jesus so we can enjoy the abundant and rewarding life of loving God and making Him known. Inman shares personal experiences, specific ideas, and tools on how to be an active participant in your salvation. A heart changed by God will dramatically influence the world. Praying The Second Most Important Prayer is life-changing and will start you on an astounding journey you can't afford to miss!
