Have you ever thought, I need a Return Missionary Training Center? Do you know someone who will begin the awkward stage of life after the mission? Are you in the awkward stage? Whatever the case, this book is meant to help missionaries choose personalized steps as they transition from missionary to returned missionary service. This book is a cross between a self help book and a journal. Most people hold the answers to their own struggles inside them. The key to find these answers is asking the right questions. This is the purpose of this book.
